Police Arrest Person In Lower Sackville

After An Altercation

Lower Sackville, Nova Scotia, 22.10.2026, 23:35 Time

Brian MacKenzie Teepell/USPA 24 News - SOURCE: Royal Canadian Mounted Police release on October 22, 2026:

RCMP Halifax Regional Detachment has arrested a person and seized a utility knife following an altercation in Lower Sackville.

On October 21st, at approximately 9:55 am, police responded to a report of an individual with a knife threatening customers inside a restaurant in the 200 block of Cobequid Road. Officers learned the person had entered the restaurant and produced the knife during an altercation with another customer. The individual was last seen walking toward Glendale Avenue.
No physical injuries were reported.

With assistance from Halifax Regional Police, officers located and arrested the individual on Glendale Avenue. A utility knife was seized.
The 40-year-old Lower Sackville resident was released on conditions and will appear in Dartmouth Provincial Court at a later date.

In a separate case,
RCMP have arrested a man and woman for cocaine possession.
The Nova Scotia Organized Crime Unit (NSOC) has also arrested the pair for trafficking.

In June, NSOC, assisted by the RCMP Halifax Regional Detachment Street Crime Enforcement Unit and the RCMP Synthetic Drugs Unit, began an investigation into cocaine trafficking in the Halifax Regional Municipality.
On October 20th, NSOC, with the assistance of the RCMP Community Action Response Team, executed a search warrant at a residence on Gaston Road in Dartmouth. Investigators seized cocaine, cash and other evidence consistent with drug trafficking.

A 34-year-old man and a 30-year-old woman, both of Dartmouth, were arrested for possession of cocaine for the purpose of trafficking. They were released on conditions and will appear in Dartmouth Provincial Court at a later date.

Sgt. Nick Baker of NSOC said;
“This investigation demonstrates the strength of NSOC’s collaborative approach to disrupting organized crime in Nova Scotia. By bringing together local, provincial, and specialized enforcement resources, we were able to identify and target individuals involved in drug trafficking, remove illicit drugs from our communities, and enhance public safety.”
